HAVE YOU SEEN JACKIE?

Jacqueline (Jackie) Adams Greene a1960 graduate of Robert Russa Moton High School is still in Bellevue, Maryland. After thirty-four years of service she retired as a first grade teacher from Talbot County Public School System

Jacqueline began to work for Talbot County as an aide after she was divorced. The teacher she worked with encouraged her to go back to school and get her degree in education. Jackie entered Soiourner Douglass College with a goal of completing college the same year her daughter graduated from high school. She graduated in three years and went on to begin her graduate work at Loyola College in Baltimore. Immediately after graduation she was hired in Talbot County Public School System. She began teaching at the Tilghman Elementary School and was there for twenty years. Jackie says, "These were the best years of her career". She continues to work as an adjunct teacher in the system as well as working at the Bennie Smith Funeral Home.

Jackie is very active in community affairs: St. Luke Church, Bellevue, Talbot County Retired Personnel Association, Village Representative for Bellevue and member and Secretary of RR Moton High School Alumni Association.

One of her goals was to plan a special day to celebrate the history of her community. As a result of this goal a group of people worked with her to set this plan in action.

Bellevue Day has been held on the third Saturday in May for several years.

Jackie is blessed to have one daughter (Linda), two grandsons, Brandon, Stephen and one great grand-daughter (Jaylen). Her Hobbies are traveling, reading and family.

50th Class Reunion Celebrated by Moton High School Class of '64

2014, the 1964 graduating class of Robert Russa Moton Jr. Sr. High School held its' 50th Class Reunion at the 'Milestone' in Easton, Maryland. Thirty Seven (37) classmates, two (2) former teachers and eighteen (18) guests enjoyed a stroll down memory lane.

After social hour, the program began with a wonderful prayer and invocation by fellow classmate, Rev. Stanley Chase. We then enjoyed a surf & turf dinner served by the 'Milestone' staff. After dinner, Cargill Lawrence did a roll call of the classmates followed by the recognition of our veterans. The program continued with the class 'Hall of Fame' from 1964, which was read by Charles Hines. None of us were able to keep a straight face as we compared ourselves then to now. Mary Brooks read our class poem.

A beautiful memorial display was done by Doris Gibson and Evelyn Dyson to honor our ten (10) deceased classmates; Joseph Allen, Joann (Pritchett) Benson, Romie Brice, Florence Carter, Walter Groce, William Jenkins, Eric Mills, William Raisin, Charles Ross and Robert Stanton.

To commemorate the occasion, each classmate received a program booklet and gift. A few special gifts were also given. Janet Jenkins presented a gift to the classmate who traveled the farthest, (Perry Milton from Oakland, California); A second gift for the longest marriage (Joyce Johns) who was also celebrating her 50th anniversary; and William Murray received the gift for the most grandchildren (23). Plaques were presented to teachers present, Mr. Roger Bryant and Mrs. Helen Powell Bryant.

Mr. & Mrs. Roger Bryant

Plaques were also sent to teachers unable to attend, Mrs. Bertha Wilson and M's Georgianna Cottman. DJ Garfield Turner provided music for the evening. Yvonne Freeman was photographer and videographer.

Kudos to our great planning committee who spent several months planning this fantastic event.
