President's

Our final issue for 2013 is ready for you to enjoy. We encourage you to send us information about yourself. It is so refreshing to find out what our alumnus have done with all the training our teachers prepared us for. Each year we move forward with a new number for our age.

This month we will feature alumnus Dr. Leah Naomi Hasty, Class of 1948. Dr. Hasty is the student from Robert Russa Moton High School who wrote the Alma Mater. She is an educator She has done a lot in her life. Other articles include: the Basketball Classic, our Financial Report, our dance on Saturday, November 30,2013 and the Membership Roster will also be included. The Membership list will include only individuals who have paid dues for 2013 as of now. Your names will be added in the next issue as we receive them. Mail dues to:

Moton High School Alumni
Association, P. O. Box 152, Royal
Oak, Maryland 21662.

We encourage all members and friends of this association to pay dues each year so that you will have access to the newsletter either through the website or by US mail.

We were all given a good start before leaving our high school. Our teachers gave us the basics to go and do more. Some shared life experiences that we have thought about when necessary. They all gave us the wisdom of being the best we could be. Now we need to keep a bit of that as we continue to help our youth. Let's continue to keep our school spirit alive.

LEAH NAOMI OMEGA GOLDSBOROUGH-HASTY Class of 1948

Dr. Leah Goldsborough Hasty was born in Easton, Maryland. She graduated from Robert Russa Moton High School in 1948 with the distinction of being Class Salutatorian. Leah did her school proud when she composed the school's Alma Mater when she was a high school senior. While a student at Moton, she earned varsity letters in basketball, track and field and soccer. She entered college at the age of 16 and received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Health and Physical Education in 1952 and her Master of Science Degree in Elementary Education from Morgan State College (now University) in 1966. Family Bible Seminary conferred the Doctor of Humane Letters to Dr. Hasty on May 17, 1992. Additional credits were received from Catholic University, Loyola College, Temple University, Trinity College, Coppin and Morgan State University. At Morgan State College, Leah Hasty distinguished herself as a member of the Women's Octet, the College Choir, the MSC Dance Group and in women's athletics. Moreover, she was active in the Morgan Christian Center and contributed to The Spokesman (college newspaper).

Personal Experiences

Hailed as an outstanding educator, Dr. Hastv's contributions are exceptional. She retired as Principal from one of Baltimore City's finest schools, The Matthew A. Henson Elementary School. From 1981 to 1983 she was principal of David E. Weglein Elementary. She became an administrator in July 1971 in the Elementary Education Division. During her tenure in the Central Office, Leah held numerous positions: Coordinator of Curriculum and Instruction, Project Manager and Educational Specialist in the Parent Involvement Program in the ESEA Title I Elementary and Secondary Basic Skills Program, and Coordinator of the Home-School and Involvement Program.

Dr. Hasty returned to Moton High School in the spring of 1952 to do her practice teaching under Mrs. Janet Nash. Her other professional experiences included high school classroom teacher of physical education, biology and mathematics, dance instructor, and coach of girl's athletic teams in Somerset County, immediately after graduating from college; Central Consolidated High School in Harford County and in Carroll County Schools.
